

Energy Scan @ Energy Health Clinic

The NES energy scan analyses the 'Human Body Field', the electromagnetic and subtle energies, that everybody produces. Balanced energies define a healthy person. Unbalanced energies within the field give hints when and why a person is unwell.

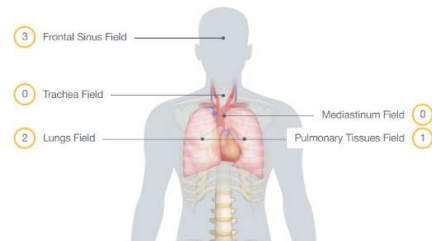

For healing these energies need to be rebalanced!

The scan gives information about the overall strength of the field of a person and information about:

- organ systems
- meridian activity
- infections
- nutrition
- environmental poisons
- emotional imbalances

One would think that an enormous effort is necessary to assess the human body field. It used to be – coming to the clinic, connect to a scanner (transducer), and get the analysis of the results, drive back home.

BWS Voice Scan

This feature allows you to record your voice, which carries information about your body's energy system. This lets us provide you with a NES Health wellness assessment. If asked, you must allow access to your device's microphone for this to work.

Make sure you're in a location where your voice will be the primary sound when you record. Our system automatically checks to ensure that enough audio is recorded to successfully provide your results.

When you are ready to begin, click on the button below and count from 1 upward (1, 2, 3 ...) until the recording process is complete.

The assessment will be sent to your NES Health professional, who you can make arrangements with to view your results.

Technology advances faster and faster. Now, this same energy scan can be done via internet – by a simple analysis voice of your voice. Sounds phantastic? It is phantastic!

And even better: Those homeopathic drops, that can correct all these imbalances, can be sent directly to you. They are called 'infoceuticals' and help you to health and wellness.

It does not matter where in the world you are – a scan can be done from anywhere

The results will be discussed in an online meeting – 1 hour.

If you want to know which of your body functions need support for you overall wellness and healing book your scan now. Call me on 0800 407246 or email to. ask@drjoe.co.nz
